Our Catalogue System.

The so-called Dictionary System, upon which all the Catalogues of the Boston Public Library are made, is thought to attain an end of paramount importance in such indexes to the resources of a great popular library, namely, simplicity and ease of consultation. The scholar, in using a catalogue so constructed, may now and then feel that some sacrifice is made to simplicity; but the great majority of those who use such a catalogue are not scholars.

Another system, which is very appropriate for scholastic or scientific use, is a classified one, arranged according to a primary division of knowledge into general departments, with minute subdivisions. Men are not agreed upon such divisions, and there are numerous other perplexities, and the system of each catalogue demands independent study, beyond the time and sometimes the ability of the average reader.

There are three things, one of which a person wanting a book must know, and the Dictionary System helps him find the book more readily than any other, as he always looks in the proper alphabetical place for the entry he is in search of. These three things are as follows: —

I. The title. If this is not clearly indicative of the subject of the work (if it is, the subject should be looked for rather than the title), search for it under the first word not an article or a preposition.

II. The author. Find this in its proper alphabetical place. If the name is a pseudonym, there will be a reference from it to the real name.

III. The subject. Find this under the most specific head, and consult other heads referred to there; but observe that these references are not to more general subjects, inasmuch as it is left to the intelligence of the user to look for matter pertaining to the horse, for example, under such general heads, as Natural History, Animals, Quadrupeds, and Mammals, books on which general topics have, almost as a matter of course, chapters or sections on particular animals. Again, books on the same subject will sometimes be found under different heads, where the terms are synonymous, or nearly so, as, for instance, Coins and Numismatics, Shells and Conchology, Insects and Entomology; but in such cases cross-references from one to the other will always assist the searcher. Indeed, a multiplication of cross-references is a fundamental idea of the Dictionary System. This necessitates, of course, the disadvantage of turning from one part of the catalogue to the other, but there is, on the other hand, a great advantage in the certainty of getting a clew somewhere, — a thing often impossible in a classified Catalogue, except to such as have made its system a study.

A compromise, uniting some of the advantages of both the Dictionary and the Classified Systems, has been applied, though in different ways, both at the Library of Congress and at Harvard College, to the catalogues of their collections; but as the "North American Review" says of this mixed system, its use is advantageous to such only as understand it, and have learned where to look for what they want; and it is therefore well adapted to the library of a college or of a learned society, which implies a class differing necessarily from that frequenting a large public and metropolitan library.

Bates Hall Catalogues.

I. The printed INDEX of 1861. Royal octavo, 902 pages.

II. The printed SUPPLEMENT of 1866. Royal octavo, 718 pages. (This contains the titles ooks in the Parker Library.)

III. The PUBLIC CARD CATALOGUE, giving under authors' names (where known) the titles of ks — not pamphlets — acquired since 1866, but without cross-references under subjects.

IV. The printed BULLETINS (issued every two or three months since October, 1867), in which contained — though without cross-references — the titles of recent American and foreign lications, and of books both old and rare which have been newly added to the Library. Books abered 2110 and upwards are in this Hall.

V. The DAILY BULLETIN, in manuscript, posted near the Desk, showing the new books eived between the successive issues of the printed Bulletins.

VI. The MAIN CARD CATALOGUE, supplementing the printed Index and Supplement. This alogue gives the titles in full, and furnishes abundant cross-references. It can be consulted, ases of need, upon application.

VII. THE CATALOGUE OF THE PRINCE LIBRARY has been issued separately, in royal octavo, pages.

Lower Hall Catalogues.

The Lower Hall was opened in the summer of 1858, with 15,000 volumes. The complete ted Catalogue was in one volume, royal octavo, double columns, 200 pages, and was ready for public in October of that year. Eight yearly supplements were printed.

In 1866, incident to a revision of the books, it was decided to issue brief-title Alcove or Find-Lists, preparatory to a new consolidated Catalogue of the entire collection in this Hall. This isionary form has been found convenient for keeping the Catalogue up with the growth of the rary, as it admits of new editions of the Lists, with a degree of frequency corresponding to their pective popularity. The character of the Lists, in the late editions, has been changed from mere ove Lists to proper Class Lists. The following have been printed: —

I. FICTION AND JUVENILES. 1st edition, September, 1866, 34 pages. — 2d edition, Decem-, 1866, 41 pages. — 3d edition, August, 1868, 57 pages. — 4th edition, October, 1869, 66 pages. 5th edition, August, 1871, 76 pages.

II. ARTS, SCIENCES, AND PROFESSIONS. 1st edition, 59 pages, April, 1867. — 2d edition, 71 es, September, 1871.

III. HISTORY, POLITICS, ETC. 1st edition, May, 1867, 27 pages.

IV. FRENCH, GERMAN, AND ITALIAN BOOKS. 1st edition, September, 1867, 45 pages.

V. BIOGRAPHY AND TRAVELS. 1st edition, May, 1868, 52 pages.

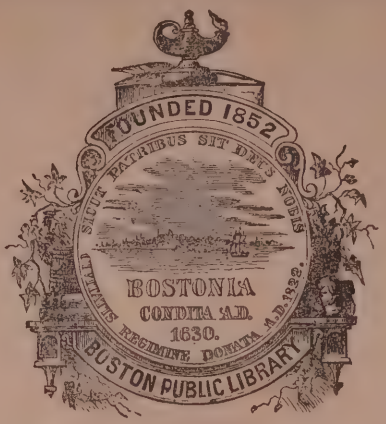
VI. POETRY, DRAMA, COLLECTIONS, AND MISCELLANIES. 1st edition, August, 1870, 128 pages.

OBSERVE. Many books properly belonging to the classes of the preceding Lists will be nd in No. 6, because they form one of a series or collection.



Consult also the printed BULLETINS (remembering that books numbered below 2110 are in this ll), and the manuscript DAILY BULLETIN posted at the Desk by the Receiving Counter.

ublic Card Catalogue and Consolidated Bulletin for the Lower Hall.

A Card Catalogue, containing only the titles of works (not anonymous) which have been ed to the Lower Library since the issue of the various Class Lists, has been placed at the rk's desk in the Distributing Hall. In the printed Bulletins, such works are entered only under names of their authors. These printed entries have been cut out of the various Bulletins, and rted in alphabetical order in a book, which is in the custody of the Clerk, and which can be sulted on application to him. This book, therefore, and the Card Catalogue, taken together, w all the additions, both under author and title, which have been made to the Lower Library e the publication of the several Class Lists.

East Boston Catalogue.

A Finding List of the books in the East Boston Branch Library has been printed separately.

CLASS LIST FOR WORKS IN THE ARTS AND SCIENCES

INCLUDING

Theology, Medicine, Law, Philosophy (Moral, Mental, Political, and Social), Education, Religious and Devotional Books, Ecclesiastical History and Missions, Domestic and Rural Economy, Recreative Arts, Trades, etc.

SECOND EDITION. SEPTEMBER, 1871.

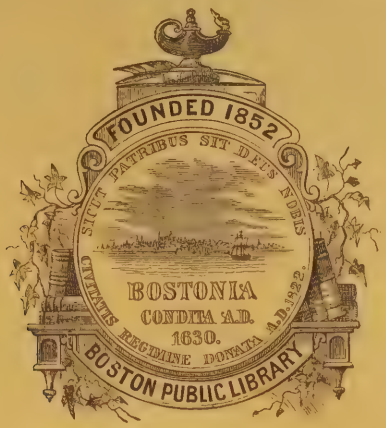
NOTE.—One volume at a time can be had in home use from the Lower Hall, and one from the Bates Hall; and a Lower Hall volume must always be returned at that Hall, accompanied by the applicant's Library card, within such hours as the Rules prescribe. No book can be taken from the Lower Hall, while the applicant has one from any Branch.

Books can be kept out 14 days, but may be renewed within that time, by presenting a new slip with the card; after 14 days a fine of two cents for each day is incurred, and after 21 days the book will be sent for at the cost of the borrower, who cannot take another book until all charges are paid.

Books must not be lent out of the household of the borrower, nor be kept by transfers in one household more than one month, and must remain in the Library one week before being drawn again in the same household.

Borrowers finding any book mutilated or unwarrantably defaced are expected to report it, as also any undue delay in the delivery of books.

Consult the daily manuscript Bulletin and the printed Bulletins for recent additions to this department.



Recommend for purchase such books as the Library does not have, on slips provided at the desk, but remember that the Bates Hall Catalogues, as well as the Lower Hall Class Lists and consolidated Bulletins, should be examined before concluding that a book does not belong to the Library.

NOTICE.

Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth:—

"Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue, belonging to any law, town, city, or public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for every such offence."

EXPLANATIONS.

Books are entered in the following List under the names of authors, when known; under the initials of the authors' names when these only appear, the last initial being put first; under the pseudonyms, or assumed names, of the writers, when the real names are not ascertained. Such books are also entered under their titles, followed by the names, initials, or pseudonyms of the authors. In the case of an anonymous work, the author of which is unknown, the entry is under the first word of the title, not an article.

In the headings of the titles, the names of authors are given in their vernacular form. French surnames preceded by Le, La, or L, are entered under L; by Du or Des, under D; by de or d', under the initial letter of the name following this prefix. In English names, the prefix is treated as a component part of the surname; as in De Quincey, Van Buren. In all other languages, surnames are entered under the letter which begins the name that follow the prefix.

Compound surnames are entered under the first part of the name.

British noblemen and ecclesiastical dignitaries are entered under their family names with cross-references from their titular appellations. All other noblemen are catalogued under their titles.

A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Dickens, C. (J. H.) In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs, ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; Goethe occurs, for example, in alphabetical order, before Gogol, instead of after it. An italicized name within marks of parenthesis following the name of an author is the pseudonym of such author; as Adams, William T. (Oliver Optic.) Brackets, within titles, inclose words additional, or changed in form.

 Friends of the Public Library will assist in making future editions of this List more nearly perfect, if they will be kind enough to communicate to the Superintendent the correction of any errors they may discover in it, the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

NOTE. — The first edition (750 copies) of this List was issued in September, 1866; the second (4,250 copies) in December, 1866; the third (3,000 copies) in October, 1868; the fourth (5,000 copies) in October, 1869. The present edition, being the fifth, consists of 5,000 copies.

The first three editions were alcove lists, covering the greater part of the books of this kind in the Lower Library; but the later editions have been strictly Class Lists.

THE INDICATOR.

THE object of the "Indicator" is to show to a borrower, at a glance, without the necessity of reference to an attendant of the Library, whether a book sought is, at the moment, on the shelf or lent out, and therefore to render it unnecessary to send in a slip indicating books which cannot be procured.

Observe that the "Indicator," as at present constructed, applies only to alcoves 4, 7, 14, and 17, which embrace works of English Prose Fiction (including Juvenile Fiction). Some works of this description occur in other alcoves, particularly in the 8th and 18th, where are placed Collections, such as Bohn's "Libraries," Harper's "Family Library," Constable's "Miscellany," and the like. Their numbers are therefore not on the "Indicator," but their titles are given in the present Class List, as well as in that which contains collected works; and they may be obtained, if in the Library at the time of application, by simply writing on the slips provided for the purpose the proper shelf-numbers, and handing the slips, together with the applicant's card, to the receiving attendant in the Delivery Hall, as is done in the case of all works not fictitious.

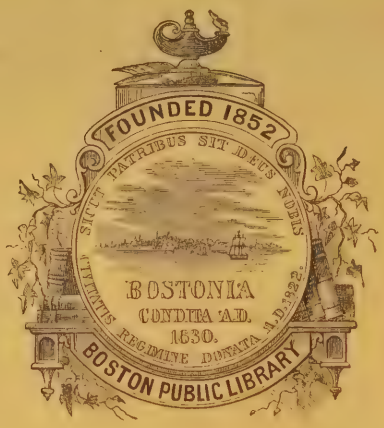
The shelf-number is to be found at the end of each row of pins. The number denoting the order of the book upon the shelf is placed upon each end of every pin.

The pins are reversible. On one end of each pin the number is printed in BLACK ON WHITE ground. When the book is ON THE SHELF, this end of the pin is always turned outwards.

On the other end of the pin, the number of the book is printed in WHITE ON BLACK ground. When the book is OUT, this end of the pin is always turned outwards.

If the work is in two or more volumes, the volumes following the first are indicated thus: V. 2, V. 3, etc., on the end of the next pins in order.

 Please erase from your slip, before delivering it to the attendant, any numbers of books in these alcoves indicated not to be on the shelves, or mark distinctly, by a cross against its number, the book found to be in.



Indicator Finding List.

A manuscript List of the numbers represented on the Indicator and of the titles of the books corresponding to these numbers has been prepared as subsidiary to this Class List, and will be found at the Clerk's desk.

As the pins of the Indicator always have the ends bearing black figures on a white ground turned outwards when the books are on the shelves, this List will furnish the means of readily ascertaining what books are at any time in the alcoves represented by the Indicator. This information cannot easily be derived from the Class List, which is arranged alphabetically under authors and titles, and not numerically according to the order of the books on the shelves. Hence, to learn whether a given work of fiction is on the shelf, find its title and number in the Class List, and then consult the Indicator. But to learn the title of a book answering to any number on the Indicator, consult only the Indicator Finding List.

Public Card Catalogue for the Lower Hall.

A Card Catalogue, containing only the titles of works (not anonymous) which have been added to the Lower Library since the issue of the various Finding Lists, has been placed at the Clerk's desk in the Distributing Hall. In the printed Bulletins, such works are entered only under the names of their authors. These printed entries have been cut out of the various Bulletins and inserted in alphabetical order in a book which is in the custody of the Clerk, and which can be consulted on application to him. This book, therefore, and the Card Catalogue, taken together, show all the additions, both under author and title, which have been made to the Lower Library since the publication of the several Finding Lists.

LOWER HALL.

CLASS LIST FOR ENGLISH PROSE FICTION,

INCLUDING TRANSLATIONS AND JUVENILE FICTION.

FIFTH EDITION. AUGUST, 1871.

NOTE.— One volume at a time can be had in home use from the Lower Hall, and one from the Bates Hall; and a Lower Hall volume must always be returned at that Hall, accompanied by the applicant's library card, within such hours as the rules prescribe. No book can be taken from the Lower Hall, while the applicant has one from any Branch.

Books can be kept out 14 days, but may be renewed within that time, by presenting a new slip with the card; after 14 days a fine of two cents for each day is incurred, and after 21 days the book will be sent for at the cost of the borrower, who cannot take another book until all charges are paid.

Books must not be lent out of the household of the borrower, nor be kept by transfers in one household more than one month, and must remain in the Library one week before being drawn again in the same household.

Borrowers finding any book mutilated or unwarrantably defaced, are expected to report it; as also any undue delay in the delivery of books.

Consult the daily manuscript Bulletin and the printed Bulletins for recent additions to this department.

Recommend for purchase such books as the Library does not have, on slips provided at the desk.

NOTICE.

Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth: —

"Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue, belonging to any law, town, city or public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for every such offence."

CLASS LIST FOR POETRY, THE DRAMA,

RHETORIC, ELOCUTION, COLLECTIONS, PERIODICALS,

AND

MISCELLANEOUS WORKS.

FIRST EDITION. JULY, 1870.

NOTE.—The Lower Library was opened to the public, suitably arranged, and with a printed Index, in the summer of 1858. During the subsequent ten years, the books were used to an extent quite unprecedented in similar institutions. Many books were worn out, many badly abused, and many lost. The larger portion of these has been replaced, but numerous changes in the location of books have been unavoidable. Eight Supplements to the Index have been printed. Incident to a thorough revision of the Lower Library, there have been printed brief Finding Lists of the books, alcove by alcove. In future editions of these alcove Finding Lists, it is intended to make them proper Class Lists; and, though most of the books in the present List belong to alcoves III, VIII, XIII and XVIII, works of the same description in other alcoves are inserted here.

Consult the daily manuscript Bulletin and the printed Bulletins for recent additions to this department.

Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth: —

"Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue, belonging to any law, town, city or public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for every such offence."

EXPLANATIONS.

Books are entered in the following List under the names of authors, when known; under the initials of the authors' names when these only appear, the last initial being put first; under the pseudonyms, or assumed names, of the writers, when the real names are not ascertained. Such books are also entered under their titles, followed by the names, initials, or pseudonyms of the authors. In the case of an anonymous work, the author of which is unknown, the entry is under the first word of the title, not an article.

In the headings of the titles, the names of authors are given in their vernacular form. French surnames preceded by Le, La, or L' are entered under L; by Du or Des, under D; by de or d', under the initial letter of the name following this prefix. In English names, the prefix is treated as a component part of the surname. In all other languages, surnames are entered under the letter which begins the name that follow the prefix.

Compound surnames are entered under the first part of the name.

Noblemen and ecclesiastical dignitaries are entered under their family names, wherever these could be ascertained, with cross-references from their titular appellations.

A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Agassiz, L. (J. R.) In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs, ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; Goethe occurs, for example, in alphabetical order before Goldoni, instead of after it. An italicized name within marks of parenthesis following the name of an author is the pseudonym of such author; as Allen, E. A. (Florence Percy.) Brackets, within titles, inclose words additional, or changed in form.

 Friends of the Public Library will assist in making future editions of this List more nearly perfect, if they will be kind enough to communicate to the Superintendent the correction of any errors they may discover in it, the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

DRAMAS, Collection of. 189 v.

Note.—The plays whose titles are given below, belong chiefly to the collections known as French's Standard drama, French's Minor drama, and French's American drama, Wemyss's Minor drama, Sargent's Modern standard drama, and Spencer's Boston theatre; but many of the volumes are made up in a heterogeneous manner, and the series are all imperfect. They are, therefore, all placed under the general head of Dramas rather than under the names of the editors or publishers.

TO GET A BOOK,

TAKE a slip, furnished at the Clerk's Desk, opposite the Indicator, and copy in the prescribed places the name and residence on your card.

Find in the Class List the numbers attached to the book you want. Put the number before the dot (.) in the column on the slip headed Shelf, and that after the dot (.) in the column headed No.; and, if the book is in more than one volume, designate the one wanted in the column headed Vol. Insert in this way the numbers of several books, to increase the chance of finding one of them in.

After the Slip is prepared, hand it in, with the card, at the Receiving Counter, and watch for the calling of your name at the Delivery Counter, where the book will be given to you, with your card. If no book is given with the card, it means that all the books designated on your slip are out. Then hand in a new slip, with other numbers, with the card again, at the Receiving Counter.

If you wish to renew a book, mention that fact to the attendant at the Receiving Counter, handing in at the same time a new slip properly filled out with the name and residence on your card, and the number of the book to be renewed.

The printed Bulletins from No. 15 onward (shelf numbers below 2110 are in the Lower Hall) can be consulted for the titles of books added to the Library subsequently to the issue of this Class List. Moreover, a Manuscript Bulletin is posted at the Desk, showing the latest books added, with their numbers attached.

Readers will confer a favor by reporting to the Superintendent any undue delay in the getting of books. They will remember, however, that an apparent delay may occur, if they are not careful to listen for the first calling of their names.

Public Library of the City of Boston.

LOWER HALL.

CLASS LIST FOR POETRY, THE DRAMA,

RHETORIC, ELOCUTION, COLLECTIONS, PERIODICALS,

AND

MISCELLANEOUS WORKS.

FIRST EDITION. JULY, 1870.

NOTE.—The Lower Library was opened to the public, suitably arranged, and with a printed Index, in the summer of 1858. During the subsequent ten years, the books were used to an extent quite unprecedented in similar institutions. Many books were worn out, many badly abused, and many lost. The larger portion of these has been replaced, but numerous changes in the location of books have been unavoidable. Eight Supplements to the Index have been printed. Incident to a thorough revision of the Lower Library, there have been printed brief Finding Lists of the books alcove by alcove. In future editions of these alcove Finding Lists, it is intended to make them proper Class Lists; and, though most of the books in the present List belong to alcoves III, VIII, XIII and XVIII, works of the same description in other alcoves are inserted here.

Consult the daily manuscript Bulletin and the printed Bulletins for recent additions to this department.

Recommend for purchase such books as the Library does not have, on slips provided at the desk.

NOTICE.

Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth: —

"Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue, belonging to any law, town, city or public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for every such offence."

COPIES ARE FOR SALE AT THE DESK, AT TEN CENTS EACH.

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

LOWER HALL.

FINDING LIST FOR PART OF ALCOVES X AND XX.

FRENCH, GERMAN, AND ITALIAN BOOKS.

NOTE.—The Lower Library was opened to the Public, suitably arranged and with a printed Index, in the summer of 1858. During the nine years which have since elapsed, the books have been used to an extent quite unprecedented in similar institutions. Many books have been worn out, many badly abused, and many lost. The larger portion of these have been replaced, but numerous changes in the location of the books have been unavoidable. Eight Supplements to the Index have been printed. It has now become imperatively necessary that a thorough revision of the Library and a consolidation of the Indexes should be made, in order to continue to meet promptly the wants of the public.

It is felt to be worthy of a strenuous effort to perform these requisite labors so as to interfere the least possible with the circulation. To this end it is proposed, as the revision proceeds, to print for temporary use brief Finding Lists of the books, alcove by alcove. When the whole Library has been reorganized, a correct, consolidated Index can be prepared.

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

LOWER HALL.

FINDING LIST FOR ALCOVES V, VI, XV, AND XVI.

BIOGRAPHY AND TRAVELS.

NOTE.—The Lower Library was opened to the public, suitably arranged and with a printed Index, in the summer of 1858. During the ten years which have since elapsed, the books have been used to an extent quite unprecedented in similar institutions. Many books have been worn out, many badly abused, and many lost. The larger portion of these have been replaced, but numerous changes in the location of the books have been unavoidable. Eight Supplements to the Index have been printed. It has now become imperatively necessary that a thorough revision of the Library and a consolidation of the Indexes should be made, in order to continue to meet promptly the wants of the public.

It is felt to be worthy of a strenuous effort to perform these requisite labors so as to interfere the least possible with the circulation. To this end it is proposed, as the revision proceeds, to print for temporary use brief Finding Lists of the books, alcove by alcove When the whole Library has been reorganized, a correct, consolidated Index can be prepared.
